

REVIEW &amp; EVALUATE

START

Formation is for everyone

- who has not been included?
- who are your audience?

Formation is for mission

- does your formation prepare recipients to impact the world?

Formation takes place better in groups

- how does being in community enhance learning?

Formation transforms lives

- does your formation mould lives which attract others?

Formation is a lifelong process

- is it part of an ongoing growth process?

Formation is a concerted effort

- who is involved?
- is it collaborative?

Formation needs practice

- how are recipients practicing what they learned?

Formation includes proclamation

- is the kerygma proclaimed to the recipients?
- are they helped to proclaim to others?

Formation Includes teachings & traditions

- how much are teachings & traditions a part of your formation?

Formation includes Prayer

- how much is prayer a part of your formation?

Formation helps discover one's charisms

- any opportunity to help people to discover their spiritual gifts?

Formation Involves works of mercy & charity

- how much are works of mercy & charity part of your formation?

Formation involves being witnesses of faith

- how much has formation helped recipients to be witnesses in word and deed?

Mentoring on the Journey

DISCIPLES

